Respite Care Options in the Greater Binghamton Area

When a caregiver needs a break

Before you arrange any kind of respite care for your loved one, you may first want to have an in-home assessment done to determine what options are the most appropriate for your caregiving situation. For questions regarding the in-home assessment, contact Caregiver Services at the Broome County Office for Aging.

1. In-Home Respite -- “My husband needs help with personal care, and sometimes I need a break from the responsibility of caring for him.”

➤ All Metro Health Care: Service providers are employees of this program. They offer non-medical care such as assistance with bathing; dressing; light housekeeping; companionship; incidental transportation; meals. Private pay; some third party insurances. Call 777-9891 for more information.

➤ Home Care Agencies: A number of home care agencies have companions; personal care aides; homemakers and housekeepers. Fee for service; private pay. Call the Broome County Office for Aging for agency names and phone numbers.

➤ Home Instead Senior Care: Service providers are employees of this program. They offer non-medical assistance such as supervision with bathing; assistance with clothing selection; meal preparation; light housekeeping; medication reminders; companionship and transportation. Fee for service; private pay and some long-term care insurances. 723-3600

➤ Senior Helpers Program: matches older workers (55+) to jobs with private employers. Personal care workers, housekeepers and companions available; also have workers interested in a variety of private jobs. Office for Aging charges no fee for making a match; workers and employers negotiate wages for the job. Call 778-6105 (8:30-Noon, M-F), for more information.

➤ Seniors Helping Seniors Seniors as providers are employees of this agency. They offer non-medical, non personal care assistance such as transportation, going shopping, help with the mail, cleaning, cooking or house maintenance, small repairs, yard work, pet care, and companionship. Fee for service; private pay in advance. Call 607-398-0188

- ☞ Veterans Administration: The Veterans Administration provides community based services that can support caregivers. This could include skilled home care for the person you care for. Homemaker /Home Health Aides services; financial support for participation in the Golden Days Adult Day Health Care Program (see below in “Adult Day Care Programs”). Contact Caregiver Support Coordinator at 1-800-792-4334 for more information.

2. ADULT DAY CARE

PROGRAMS ... “I need time to myself a few days a week so I can take a break, or do the things I need to do. The person I care for needs a supervised place to go outside the home for socialization.”

- ☞ Yesteryears Social Adult Day Care Program (Broome Co. Office for Aging), two locations – one in Binghamton and one in Endwell. Suggested contribution. Call 778-2946.
- ☞ Golden Days Adult Day Health Care (Medical Program), Susquehanna Nursing Home, 282 Riverside Dr., Johnson City. Private Pay, Medicaid; Veterans (Those who qualify) and long term care insurance; call 729-9206.
- ☞ Senior Day Care at Hopkins House, centrally located in Binghamton, Private Pay; call (607) 727-6079.

3. SHORT-TERM RESPITE AWAY FROM HOME . . . “I need to attend an out-of-town wedding. Is there a place where my relative can stay for a few days?”

There are living options that provide supervision and assistance that may be able to accommodate your elder on a temporary, 24 hour basis. Some of the options are on a space availability basis only and some have a minimum stay requirement. The application process for this respite arrangement takes time, so inquire way in advance.
